Inspired in self-isolation: David Kachlír

With Covid-19 lockdowns worldwide and health authorities urging people to self-isolate and practice social distancing on a massive scale as part of an enormous effort to #FlattenTheCurve of this global pandemic ... we are reaching out to industry friends, colleagues, associates, partners, etc., and asking them to share their #StayAtHome and #QuarantineAndChill activities with us during this extraordinary time.

David is the lighting designer and operator at Městské Divadlo (City Theatre) in Brno, Czech Republic, a venue he describes as “the best theatre in the world”, which normally has a vibrant and varied performance programme. David creates lighting for both musical shows and drama pieces and is very patriotic about his country.

Robe: Where are you right now?

David: Brno, CZ - my Home.

Robe: How are you spending time whilst isolating / on lockdown?

David: I am with my family most of the time – working on building spiritual values compared to the material ones.

Robe: What’s the most creative thing you’re able to do whilst in isolation?

David: Building faith.

Robe: Are you looking after anyone else during the Covid-19 crisis? Like neighbours or others in the family?

David: I visit my parents often weekly.

Robe: Has anyone particularly inspired you since this crisis started?

David: Yes – my children – they surprise me every day with their purity!

Robe: What has been your favourite book / movie / Netflix or TV series / viral video / Games / music?

David: The Holy Bible.

Robe: What's the first thing you'd like to do when we are through this crisis?

David: Continue with building spiritual values...

Robe: Own question / answer / message of solidarity or something you'd like to say?

David: Let's open our eyes and focus on the real values.
